

POSITION DESCRIPTION

Ambassador

Directly Reports to:	District Leader
Oversees:	Volunteers
Internal DJJ Interaction:	President, Operations Director, District Leaders, Partnership Director, Regional Coordinators, Area Director, Zonal Representative, and other Ambassadors
Outside DJJ Interaction:	Ministry Leaders, Other Organization Leaders, Disciple-makers, Individual Subscribers

MISSION:

- An ambassador's core mission is to create opportunities to share the Partnership Training and thereby motivate disciple multiplication utilizing DJJ resources to grow the Kingdom.

OUTCOMES (Job Tasks, Metrics, or Accountabilities):

1. This position will be measured by successful growth of at least 10% yearly. Metrics presently include Partnership event attendance and Certificate of Completion of the training awarded and reviewed annually.
2. Recruit and train high influencing and prolific ministry leaders to attend the training and begin to multiply disciples.
3. Recruit partners who help expand impact.
4. Work with the Materials Director, Translation Coordinator, Assistants, and other DJJ leaders to translate the Partnership materials.
5. Develop creative ways to expand Partnership training attendance using social media, apps, face-to-face meetings, etc.
6. Discover and develop leadership and financial resources to create a self-sustaining ministry.
7. Oversee the highest levels of integrity and accuracy in reporting.

COMPETENCIES (Job Requirements, Skills, or Knowledge):

- Godly. A vital and growing relationship with Jesus Christ.
- Leader of Leaders. Lead and train others who lead others to make disciples.
- Recruiter. Continually expand your network of a team of engaged disciple-making churches. Help recruit other Ambassadors to help you train and so that your position is covered if something happens to you.
- Initiator. Willing and able to initiate Partnership Training events rather than waiting for others to create them.
- Communicator. Excellence in communication as a trainer and public speaker
- Reporting. Written reports of attendance, pictures of events and disciple-makers, testimonials of changed lives, and other communication. (This can be delegated to Program Directors you recruit.)

- Disciple-maker. Utilize DJJ materials to disciple others in various settings.
- Creativity/Innovation. Discover new areas and ideas that lead to substantial ministry growth and impact.
- Technology. Helpful to have at least a minimal working knowledge of personal computers, Google Docs, Slides or Word, and PowerPoints.
- Team player. Committed to the overall Mission, Vision, and Core Values of DJJ.

WORKING CONDITIONS:

- Remote office working environment.
- Partnership Events or other meetings.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:

DJJ EXPERIENCE: Verifiable regular and consistent use of DJJ materials to make disciples.

NETWORK: A network of ministry contacts in multiple denominations and ministries.

EXPERIENCE:

- Team leadership experience with five or more persons.
- Proven experience in ministry.

COMPENSATION:

This role is a voluntary, uncompensated position.

ADVANCEMENT:

Those who perform well in this role may be eligible for a promotion.

AUTHORITY:

You may recommend Ambassadors for approval by your District Leader, or if they are unavailable, by your either Regional Coordinator, Area Director, Zonal Representative, Partnership Director, Operations Director, or President.

